Subject: Why Is the Liberal Party Up For Sale?

Ms Minister so why has the Liberal Party made access to ministers up for sale? So lets get this right..... if I want to pay $500 to Torys Law firm in Toronto I can gain face time with you? Hummm that is not what I voted for in the last election, isnt it you party that said you wanted transparency and change the good old boys insider club attitude of the Conservatives yet now you are acting just like them? I guess being in power now changes your opinion of how govt ministers sell access.

I will think twice about giving my donation to the Lival Party next year and re-evaluate my vote in the next election.
